ABOUT — FOUNDER

Subrata Midya is an entrepreneur, PR specialist, digital marketer, and the Founder & CEO of Think nXt Media, a PR, branding, digital marketing, and IT solutions company.

Hailing from a small village in Paschim Medinipur, West Bengal, Subrata's journey reflects ambition, resilience, and entrepreneurial vision. While pursuing his B.Tech in Computer Science Engineering at JIS College of Engineering, he founded Think nXt Media in 2021, during his second year of college.

After briefly joining an MNC, he made the bold decision to leave his job and dedicate himself fully to entrepreneurship.

His vision was to build a company that could provide PR, branding, digital marketing, web development, software, and technology solutions under one roof.

Under his leadership, Think nXt Media has expanded its operations across India and international markets, helping 500+ businesses strengthen their digital presence, brand identity, and online growth.

With a strong focus on innovation and business development, Subrata continues to build new ventures and create technology-driven solutions for businesses. His journey reflects his belief in taking risks, creating opportunities, and inspiring young entrepreneurs to turn their ideas into meaningful businesses.
